99.9% FATAL 100% PREVENTABLE

Opportunity to share your work with the world!

Invitation to feature in the End Rabies Now stories

We would like to invite you to write a short news article about the fantastic work you are doing to contribute towards Zero dog-mediated human rabies deaths by 2030. As you may know, this global goal was conceived and delivered to you by the End Rabies Now campaign, resulting in the development of the Global Strategic Plan.

As a means to celebrate every person and organization working towards this goal, we are looking to promote work from within communities. No matter the scale of your work, if you are making a difference against rabies, we want to share your work with the world and unite the global rabies community.

You can share a story about an experience that you had or the work that you do. For example, the story of saving one child bitten by a rabid dog or your story about a vaccination campaign that you organized. Both styles are acceptable, and we encourage you to share all of your stories and experiences.

Why contribute?

- Gain support for your work.
- Get international recognition.
- Reach a global audience:
  - through the international End Rabies Now website.
  - through the End Rabies Now social media.
- Help raise awareness about rabies in your country.

Details

We are looking for a story about your work and how you are contributing to End Rabies Now.

Length: 400-600 words

Photos: One photo minimum, but two or three photos is preferable. Please provide high-quality photos (a smartphone camera is usually sufficient quality).
